Wednesday, November 1st, 2023 at 12:00 EST

Angela Leek, CHP, joined SummitET as the Director of Radiological Solutions and Regulatory Affairs in February 2023 after 16 years in the Iowa Department of Health and Human Services radiation control program. For the last nine years, Angela served as Bureau Chief of Radiological Health and was responsible for all radiological regulation programs in Iowa, including licensing and inspection activities for radiation-producing machines, radioactive materials, and radon and tanning programs. In addition to these regulatory functions, Angela was responsible for coordinating dose assessment and developing protective action recommendations for radiation emergency preparedness and response and continues support in Iowa and across the nation as a Type 1 Radiological Operations Support Specialist and is a member of the national ROSS working group to develop and grow the national ROSS program.

Angela recently served as the Chairperson for the Conference for Radiation Control Program Directors (CRCPD), Iowa's governor-appointed state liaison officer to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and Iowa's voting member for the Organization of Agreement States. Angela is a director member of the Board of the Health Physics Society. Angela has and continues to develop and support over 100 trainings and presentations on radiation protection, regulatory program perspectives, and emergency response. Angela has been involved in radiation protection for over 25 years and is certified by the American Board of Health Physics. She earned her master's in Radiation Health Physics from Oregon State University and is currently working on her Ph.D. at Iowa State University.
